UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. ANTHONY SPANN-STEWART, 2:18CR00366

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WARRANT
August 19, 2022

On August 19, 2019, Spann-Stewart was sentenced to 27 months followed by 3 years of supervised release for committing the offense of Felon in Possession of Ammunition. On June 23, 2022, Spann-Stewart commenced his supervise in the District of Nevada.

As noted above, Spann-Stewart tested positive upon starting his supervised release as well as missing one drug test and both violations were addressed with him. More concerning to the probation office is his recent felony arrest for Pandering on August 13, 2022. The police report details how Spann-Stewart approached an undercover officer working as a prostitute on Freemont Street on August 5, 2022. Spann-Stewart then agreed to meet the undercover on August 13, 2022 where he attempted to recruit her to work for him as a sex worker.

It is concerning to our office that in less than 60 days of starting his supervised release, he has already been charged with a new felony. Spann-Stewart's recent conduct is unacceptable for someone on supervised release. As such, it is requested that a warrant be issued for his arrest so that he may appear before the Court to address these violations.

Respectfully submitted,
